

Code of Conduct

As teachers and students of Allegiant Christian School, we represent our school to those around us, the home educating community, and most importantly our Lord Jesus Christ. In recognition of that we should behave in a manner consistent with the instruction presented in God's Word. When at any school function, it is uncomfortable for the adult in charge of an event to discipline someone else's child. With that in mind, we present these guidelines. Please teach your children the appropriate behavior and attitudes for compliance, as well as telling them that the adult in charge of the activity has been delegated by the school (and you) to speak to them about inappropriate behavior. Review these with your family before any school functions. Thank You.

1. Have respect for authority figures, whether that person is in charge of a field trip, a tour guide at an event, the leader of games at park day, etc.....One parent/guardian must be present at all school functions. If that is impossible you may assign another adult over 25 to be responsible for your child(ren). (I Peter 2:13; Romans 13:1)
2. Have an attitude of compassion for the differences, needs, or disabilities of others. (Matthew 7:12; James 2:1-9; Galatians 5:22-23)
3. Act and speak in a manner worthy of the God who calls you – unkind remarks, profanity, coarse jokes, conversation involving occult or sexual situations or other language unbecoming of a Christian in unacceptable at school functions. Also avoid knowingly wearing gang symbols or colors. Dress modestly, no faddy clothes that resemble underwear etc...(as per the discretion of the staff).
4. Even though you may not have a problem with certain behavior within your family, if you know something may be offensive to someone else, refrain from doing it! Respect the property and landscape of those we are visiting. Parents teach children about refraining from things in a group setting that may be allowed at home. This would include things as simple as climbing trees or fences on someone else's property, as well as language or joking that may offend. (I Corinthians 8:7-13; Philippians 2:3-4; Romans 12:17b)
5. On educationally-oriented field trips, come prepared to listen attentively with an attitude of learning. Headphones or other distracting articles or behavior are not permitted. (James 3:13) We will give you our field trip policies with your records package which will be distributed at our first meeting.
6. The use of alcoholic beverages or tobacco products, or the possession or use of weapons or illegal drugs are not permitted during any Allegiant Christian School function. Noncompliance with this item will result in expulsion from Allegiant Christian School. (Matthew 5:16; Galatians 5:19- 21)
7. Wholesome friendships are encouraged between boys and girls. However, students should look upon one another as brothers and sisters in Christ and refrain from demonstrating personal affection at all school functions. (Galatians 5:24; Romans 12:10; Ephesians 5:3)
